

World Class Safety, LLC

offers on-site

Bloodborne Pathogens Training

Sample Course Outline

- I. Introduction
 - A. Background to the Bloodborne Pathogens Standard 1910.1030
- II. Occupational Exposure to Bloodborne Pathogens
 - A. Purpose
 - B. Scope and Application
 - C. Definitions
 - D. Major Compliance Requirements
 - 1. Written Exposure Control Plan
 - 2. Universal Precautions
 - 3. Engineering and Work Controls
 - 4. Personal Protective Equipment
 - 5. Housekeeping
 - 6. Hepatitis B Vaccination
 - 7. Post Exposure Evaluation and Follow-Up
 - 8. Labels and Signs
 - 9. Information and Training
 - 10. Recordkeeping
- III. Company's Bloodborne Pathogens Program
- IV. Infection Control—Personal Protective Equipment
- V. Question and Answer Session
- VI. Learning Exercise
- VII. Hand Out Current Information from the CDC

The on-site Bloodborne Pathogens training, if conducted as an add-on to the Medic First Aid BasicPlus CPR, AED, and First Aid class, is $100.00, and will take approximately 50 minutes to complete. To conduct the Bloodborne Pathogens training as a separate class, the investment is $315.00.

Of course, World Class Safety offers a full line of bloodborne pathogen items and first aid products to assist you in being OSHA compliant.